With the primary over and the official vote in, County Judge Carlson's friends and supporters are feeling very jubilant over the splendid complimentary vote he received throughout the county. Out of 1255 non-partisan ballots cast, Judge Carlson received 768 or a majority of 487 over his only competitor, Isaac Millsbaugh. Judge Carlson's was the largest vote cast for any candidate in Holt county and is a well-deserved tribute to an efficient administration.

For a purse of $100 and a side bet of $100 the local team, last Sunday, on the Long Pine diamond, defeated the fast Springview team by a score of 4 to 2. From all reports brought from the scene of battle, it seems that Lintt, who was doing the pitching for O'Neill, was not working right and the Springview boys got to him and scored a couple in the second frame. It looked quite bad until the fourth frame when an error and successive hits by Sullivan and Lintt tied the score. Then in the fifth another error Leahy's hit and Boyle's two bagger netted two more scores which were enough to win the game. Quite a delegation from here witnessed the game it being reported that out of an attendance of 300 at the game only four people were from Long Pine.

Last Monday evening a few friends of Miss Edith Scepter and Miss Mary Keyes, of Pittsburg, who are here visiting the former's sister, Mrs. B. A. Harding, gathered at the latter's home, in the western part of the city, in the nature of a surprise party on the two young ladies. Dancing proved to be the most popular amusement which was indulged in until twelve when a dainty lunch was served after which the guests departed. Everyone reported an enjoyable evening and speak very highly of the wonderful playing of Miss Scepter who is an accomplished pianist having studied under several of the country's most eminent artists. Those present were, Misses Margaret Kane, Cora Merideth, May Hammond, Etta Froelich, Ida Chapman, Helen Mullen, Mary Fitzsimmons, Lola Rorkford, Lucille Barrigan, of Ewing, and Natalia Spencer, of Atkinson. Donohoe on Friday evening, Aug. 28th at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of taking some action in matters pertaining to the advancement of our mutual interests. George Purnell Dies.
George Purnell, who was shot by Jack Hoff alias Hatfield, in Atkinson, on the 19th as a result of an argument over a bottle of liquor, died from the wound on the 22nd at Atkinson.

Upon hearing of his death Coroner Dr. E. T. Wilson went up to Atkinson where on Saturday he and Dr. Douglas of that place held an autopsy over the body which revealed the fact that a 32-calibre bullet had penetrated the liver, a part of the right lung, the upper end of kidney and lodged just under the skin in the back.

An inquest was held at the same time, Sheriff Grady empanelling as jurors, W. T. Hayes, Otto Thompson, Wayne Warner, Zeb Warner, Joseph Matousek, and John Alfs, jr., who found "that the deceased came to his death at 1:30 o'clock a. m., August 22, 1914, as a result of a shot fired from a revolver in the hands of John Huff, on the evening of August 19, 1914, and that in their opinion the said act of shooting was done feloniously."

Huff is now in the county jail awaiting preliminary hearing which has been set for Friday, a complaint charging first degree murder having been filed against him. It is understood that M. F. Harrington has agreed to defend Hoff.

George Purnell, the deceased, was about 57 years old and has been a resident of Emmet township for a number of years. He leaves a wife and three small children to mourn his demise. He was buried in the Atkinson cemetery last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor arrived in the city last Tuesday evening and since their arrival have been receiving the congratulations of the many friends of the Professor. The Frontier joins in tendering its congratulations.

MR. DEPOSITOR:

We invite you to Deposit your funds in this bank for the reason that all depositors are protected by the Depositors' Guarantee Fund of the State of Nebraska.

That the Deposits are amply protected in State Banks was exemplified in the failure of the State Savings Bank of Superior, Nebraska, a few months ago. Shortly after the bank closed the depositors were paid in full, together with interest up to the time the bank suspended payment.

At the same time the First National Bank of Superior failed and up to this time the depositors have not received a cent, and prospects of ever receiving a substantial portion of their deposits are not very bright.

The harvest of the farmers and stockmen is now at hand and they will soon be disposing of their products and will want to deposit their surplus funds.

Kindly keep this bank in mind, as this is the only bank in O'Neill operating under the Guarantee Law of the State of Nebraska.
